DISSOLUTION SALE

Starts Promptly at 8 A. M. Sharp

Saturday, Dec. 5, and Will Continue Until Xmas

The sale will take place at my present store and in the sample room of the Brunswick Hotel building facing the Post Office

I am forced to raise a certain amount of money, as I must pay off my creditors. Next I must pay Harry Kohn, a member of the firm, a certain amount of money. Unless I raise that amount I must step out of the business on Christmas day. This is not one of Jake's gags to sell the goods, but it is a positive fact. In order to do that I was ordered by the creditors and Harry Kohn, a member of the firm, to place the stock on sale beginning SATURDAY, DEC. 5th, and continue until Christmas, at prices that you can not imagine. You can not picture in your mind the bargains we will have during this sale. It is not a matter of making profits, it is only a matter of raising the money in order to meet my obligations. Everybody knows that all kinds of goods are advanced and every merchant at this time of the year gets the highest prices for their goods. Now you will buy the goods at less than half of the regular prices. No man, woman or child can overlook this opportunity. Nuff Ced.

To give you an idea of the astonishing low prices read our small price list which we quote. It would be impossible for us to mention every item on this bill, as that would require a 12 page newspaper; therefore, if any item you can't find on the bill just ask for it. We have one extra room packed full of goods that have never been opened up and everything will be displayed in this sale. Be on hand promptly and get your share of the bargains.

ATTENTION

Owing to the small space we have in our small store to handle the crowds that we expect, we have secured one of the sample rooms in the Brunswick Hotel facing the postoffice, where we will place part of the goods. Look for the big signs bearing the name of "J. ISRAISKY." That will guide you to the right places. Remember that Jake will be here himself to manage this sale. You will be treated with courtesy. And you will be waited upon with proper dispatch. Thousands of people are expected. Are you coming?

WARNING

Don't be misled by any fictitious, so-called, little tail-end sales which may be in progress while our sale is on, as it has always been the best thing for some imitators to do so. Prices are never cut until Jake cuts them. Now good people of Lawrence County, Ky., and Wayne County, W. Va., my advice to you is to make a rush to this sale, as this will be the greatest money-saving sale in the history of Eastern Kentucky. A word to the wise is sufficient. Just follow the crowds and attend this most wonderful of all sales.

FLAT GAP.

The weather was smiling, a glad Thanksgiving as your people passed through the lovely town of Flat Gap last Thursday. The school children were out to spend a few hours together, rosy-cheeked, loyal and alert. They nequipped themselves very worthily in the rendering of their program. Much to the gratification of the boys and girls, some of the parents and friends were with them. The visitors were treated to the very pleasant manner that few schools in the county can muster a larger list of excellent grades in deportment for the past four months. We believe the patrons of this school are interested in education with a true vision and a quiet determination that is sure to win.

Among those from away we noted the Misses Williams and Miss Maclelland, of Red Bush, Miss Ora Stungil, of Jones Creek, Messrs. Doctor Evans and Fritz Sargents. On her way home Miss Bond happened to the mistaking of being thrown from her horse, owing to a scorch from a passing automobile. We hope she was not seriously injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wheeler received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler and other friends last Thursday.

Messrs. Henry Travis, Ben Wheeler and Master Lee McKinnon contributed very much to the comfort of the school by presenting it with a new blue recently.

Woodrow, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Stivers, has been quite ill but is improving.

There was a meeting here last Thursday night, conducted by Revs. Green and Williams.

Sunday School at this place was recently organized with the following officers: Mrs. Tom Meade, Mrs. Misses Salvers, Mrs. Bob Ross, Misses Mary Lash, Elva Davis, Mary McKenna, Neva Meade and Messrs. Brownlow, Jones, Ben Wheeler and Ernest Jayne.

We understand Prof. Tom Holbrook is soon to leave school at Sandy Hook. Mr. Holbrook is one of the best teachers in the county and is highly respected by his scholars.

Rev. Hamilton preached a good sermon here recently.

Almered Thompson made a trip to Parisville recently.

Gene Williams was visiting home a few days ago.

OBITUARY.

Death has again visited our town and taken one of our oldest members, James K. Rice, who was born Nov. 26, 1839, and departed this life Nov. 14, 1914. He was converted in the year 1854 and has lived a consecrated life up to the day of his death. In the last moments of his life he said to his son, James, that he was ready, and when he could no longer speak when I was talking to him he pointed up with his hand.

He was first married to Miss Della Hutchison and to them three sons were born. After the death of his first wife he was again married to Miss Ada Evans. To them were born four sons and four daughters. All of his children were at the funeral but one daughter who was out west and could not get there.

There was not an hour but his wife and some of his children were at his side to help him and his neighbors were so kind to help when anything was needed, for which the family is very grateful. Everything was done that could be done for him. The funeral was preached by the writer of this article, and Rev. H. R. Hewlett, to a large congregation of friends. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him but we know where to find him. May God bless the bereaved family.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Help for World in Christmas Ship.

Edw. Fuge Young, Superintendent of schools in Chicago, in endorsing the movement inaugurated by the Chicago Herald, says: "It is a wonderful idea, this promise of a toy ship to carry a message from the children of America to the unhappy children of Europe. And it was presented in a beautiful letter a letter which every child in the United States and the parents of every child should read and keep."

A toy ship, a messenger from America to Europe, carrying light where all is darkness, peace where all is murder and suffering, love where there is only hate. It is a big thought, for in its immediate purpose, big in its almost unlimited potentialities. I see in it better boys and girls, fiercer, stronger men and women. I see in it self-denial and sympathy born from abstract ideals to realized human attributes. In it I see all of these and more.

"I see fathers and mothers dwelling less on the horror and tragedy of war and more on its pitiful reality and needlessness. I see children growing to maturity with fixed ideals of love and sympathy and mutual helpfulness. I see mothers turned to sympathy, horror to sweetness and hate to love."

Of course, this is only a beginning, only a first step in a course which should be taken up and followed not only by children but also by parents and teachers and ministers and doctors. Such things take time, just as all growths with all evolutions take time. But the Santa Claus ship is on the right course, its prow is turned to the rising sun, and at the end of its journey, a greater and better and abiding world.

"Such a sacrifice, boys of men to man, of child to child, broken barriers of race, religion, nation and language—such will form the cargo of the Christmas ship more truly even than the toys and clothes which comprise its material freight."

"No wonder that great men-of-war should dip their flags to the toy ship for warriors, like other men, have in them that spark of the divine which needs only the touch of a single discordant note to be brought to awaken the highest and the noblest that in human nature."

"Hark off to the toy ship, to the flag with the single golden star."

Buy the truth and sell it not. Buy it for yourself at whatever cost, at the cost of changing all your habits of life and thought if need be, let your outward life be the true expression of your inner self. Never deceive anyone or tell truth to the society women have respect, but real kindness of heart will always express an expression of kindness, do not appear glad to see company and then say unkind things about them when they are gone, do not indulge in excuses but give your true reasons for doing or not doing things; "to thine own chaperon self be true," keep your mind's eye open to discern truth and error and it will guide you. You will not follow it truly, and I think's question, "What is truth?" will be answered to you in part and truth will reveal itself to you as you seek it.

Help Santa Claus.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad officials placed its 2,000 miles of tracks, reaching from St. Paul to St. Louis, from Billings, Mont., to Chicago, at the disposal of the committee, who are collecting gifts for the Christmas ship which will sail from New York November 10, loaded with presents for the children of the soldiers who are now fighting in Europe.

The order announcing that all shipments to this great national donor would be carried free of charge received at all the freight offices a short time ago. Not only does this mean that only the main lines will haul free of tariff but that every little branch, stretching in a great network, will carry the presents free of charge.

Children in the little village where perhaps only one train a day makes its appearance will have the same opportunity to send a dolly, a jumping jack or something for the needy child to wear as the children in the city.

And you can rest assured that the trainmen will take good care of those precious gifts, filled with the presents of the American children for their little brothers and sisters across the sea.

They will be filled as "Rush" and great, pulling engines will whirl them at express speed to Chicago where another railroad will take them on to New York.

Seven great American railroads have offered to haul the gifts free of charge as follows:

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; Lehigh Valley; Erie System; Chicago & North Western; St. Paul & San Francisco Union Pacific.

No mother should allow her home to be merely a boarding house where the members of the family eat and sleep, while she voluntarily, year after year, consents to be nothing more than chief cook and maid of all work. Rather let home be a dwelling place where time out of school and business hours may be spent profitably.

THE world and everything that has life is moving, growing, getting better, larger and more useful. The thing that is not moving, is not active, and not prospering, is the man who either wants to buy or sell something, does not know how, and is froth with fear, jealousy, or unwilling to help himself or let others help him.
